

2025 Long Trail Day Hike-a-Thon

Peer-to-Peer Participant Registration Guide

This guide will walk you through the registration process for the 2025 Long Trail Day Hike-a-Thon.

Visit the event website to get started: greenmountainclub.org/longtrailday2025.

First, click the Register link on the event site.

The screenshot displays the event website for the 2025 Long Trail Day Hike-a-Thon. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a search bar, social media icons, and a 'Sign In or Sign Up' link. The main banner features a scenic mountain landscape with hikers and a wooden sign that reads 'LONG TRAIL DAY 2025 A Hike-a-Thon for Vermont's Trails'. Below the banner, the date 'September 20, 2025' is displayed. The central section shows a fundraising thermometer with a scale from 0% to 100%. The current amount raised is $4,323.00, marked as 'achieved', and the goal is $80,000.00, marked as 'goal'. The progress is indicated as 5% of the goal reached. Below the thermometer are two buttons: 'Donate Now' and 'Register Now'. A large red arrow points to the 'Register Now' button. To the left of the thermometer, there is a section titled 'Fundraise and Hike to Support Vermont's Trails!' with a description of the event and four steps: 1. Register, 2. Fundraise, 3. Hike, and 4. Celebrate. A note at the bottom states: 'Note: If you can't hike on September 20, it is perfectly fine to pick another day for your hike because this is your Hike-a-Thon!'.

Fundraise and Hike to Support Vermont's Trails!

This is your Hike-a-Thon, so you choose your goals – distance and fundraising- all to support the trails. As the Green Mountain Club's only fundraising event, your participation is critical to the work of helping us sustainably maintain and protect over 500-miles of hiking trails in Vermont, including the Long Trail.

You can support the Long Trail and Green Mountain Club in just four easy steps:

1. Register— Join as an individual or gather your friends, family, neighbors, book club, and/or co-workers to create a Hike-a-Thon team.
2. Fundraise — Set a fundraising goal and invite friends, family and others to "sponsor" your hike. A suggested fundraising goal is $272/person ($1 to represent each mile of the 272 mile Long Trail), and all funds raised are critically important to the Green Mountain Club's work on the trails.
3. Hike — This Hike-a-Thon is special because YOU CHOOSE the distance and the trail. Whether your goal is 2 miles, 27 miles, or a full thru-hike of 272 miles, it makes no difference. What matters most is that you set your Hike-a-Thon goals—distance and fundraising—HIKE and have FUN!
4. Celebrate — On trails across Vermont, we will celebrate our collective hiking and fundraising successes on Long Trail Day, September 20th!

Note: If you can't hike on September 20, it is perfectly fine to pick another day for your hike because this is your Hike-a-Thon!

Commented [LL1]: add clarification for what it means if you check the box underneath the goal amount

Commented [RF2R1]: @Lily LaRegina I think I clarified?

Note: While fundraising tends to be most successful when you ask your friends, family and co-workers who know you personally to support your efforts, you may also choose to fundraise on behalf of your team only and share only your team's fundraising page. If this is your preference, you should check the box indicating "I don't want my own fundraising goal and page".
